NARRATIVE:

The F150 was southbound on 34th Street NE (Grand Forks County Road 12). The F350 was westbound on 1st Avenue NE. The driver of the F350 disregarded the stop sign and struck the F150. Both vehicles entered the southwest ditch, where they came to rest after striking an electrical power pole. The driver of the F150 was transported to Northwood Deaconess Hospital by ambulance.

34th Street NE was temporarily closed due to the downed electrical line crossing the road but is now open. Nodak Electric Cooperative is working on removing the electrical line from the ditch and restoring power.
